Your backlinks profile is improving systematically. There were few backlinks that were lost last month but this is also natural for every website.

The most important that there are more contextual backlinks “new” than “lost”

Your website visibility “purple” line shows that website is constantly more visible in organic searches. However, blue line shows that there are not so many proportional clicks. We need to work on that and find the reason.

PPC was paused!

Social media were done as agreed for Terrabody products. We will make some more general in this month because you are leaving. The same for email marketing.
